

IF A CITY COULD SPEAK...

Instructions: Using the answers to the questions above, develop a synthesized first person narrative, speaking/writing as the soul of a city, in prose or poetry

A large, empty rectangular box with rounded corners and a thin orange border, intended for the student's response.